

To the Faculty — those who have played so important a part in our four years at East Side, we dedicate our Torch. In our hearts will always be the memory of their courage, their patience, their understanding, and their ever-friendly interest in us.

Just enough, said Emerson, is not enough. Man's progress up the scale of civilization has been accomplished only because there were those who were not willing to leave well enough alone.

These restless adventurers had to invent the machines, discover the processes, explore new lands, invest the capital, and execute the plans for the world we live in today.

To be a competent worker is commendable, but to be a creative worker is more praiseworthy. To be a good, conscientious citizen is laudable, but to be a constructive and active citizen is even more valuable.

Your elders urge you on to greater efforts and higher goals, but we only do so because we have learned that mankind's rise stems from those who are willing to do a better job than has ever been done before and from those who are eager to do jobs that no one has ever been able to do before.

That is the challenge that faces the class of January, 1952.

Every term when a class comes up for graduation I regret anew that I do not know the students personally.

Your names and your records are familiar to me. In the privacy of my office I rejoice in the splendid scholastic records many of you have made and I wish there was time for me to send for you and congratulate you on your fine grades.

Of course there are a few who have come to my attention for various reasons during the past three and a half years, but most of you have never been in my office, and you are the very ones I would most like to know.

To all of you I give my best wishes for future health, happiness, and prosperity, and I shall watch your progress with interest.

Anna L. Erbacher Vice-Principal

Laura F. Schefter Adviser and Counselor

Mrs. Schefter has been everything to us — adviser, counselor, parent, teacher, and friend. Surely the gratitude that is in our hearts will endure throughout the years.

Ray Wachauf

42 Lenox Avenue, Irvington

He's a good-looking lad whose hobby is collecting Hot-Rod magazines. Ray likes to ride around in a car or spend his time at Elm Road and Ann Street with friends Carmen and Joe. His future plans depend upon Uncle Sam.

Connie Cornel Wilson

38 Seymour Avenue

Connie, known as Cornel, is a new-comer to our class. His hobby is collecting bop records and he can usually be found at any near-by jazz session. Connie a singer himself, would like to become a disc-jockey after graduation.

Frank Wald

69 Houston Street

Frank has a seemingly shy and reserved personality. When you get to know him, however, he reveals a warm and pleasant manner. Model railroads and basketball are great favorites of his. Frank desires to become a draftsman after graduation.

Celeste Xavier

65 Demarest Street

"Always keep them laughing" is Lesty's motto. Her many friends enjoy listening to the exciting stories of her motorcycle and horseback riding experiences. An avid reader, she is looking ahead to the day when she can be an assistant to a chemist.

Fond Memories of Yester-year

By Anita Fortunato

Prologue

The music is playing sweetly as we walk down the aisle on graduation night and our hearts are keeping time, beating loudly. We look about and see the serious faces of our usually jolly friends. They too, are thinking back to all the happiness and sorrows we have known in these past four years; of the pride we felt when we were told our work was well done, and the discouraging times when everything seemed to be against us. No one can explain these emotions we have felt, for we all have our own fond memories to tell.

These thoughts cannot be put down on paper for there is too much in our hearts that chokes us... of the love of our friends... of the wonderful teachers who with patience and guidance helped us so much. Our parents... well... what can we say about our parents?... How much we love them and all the sacrifices they have made for us?

We have all worked together as a class and shared our dreams, hopes, and plans together. We worked hard and we had fun.

Recollections

We recall organizing as a class in the 9B term. Our first dance was given for us by the 9A's in the Boys Gym. At this dance the boys stayed in one corner of the gym and the girls in another. We held up the wall as we filled our stomachs with sweets and delicacies.

In 9A we elected officers and home room representatives who made up our Executive Committee. They were constantly busy holding meetings, collecting dues, planning social affairs, writing the constitution and reporting back to the home rooms.

In 10B we planned a St. Patrick's Day dance with the 10A's in the Boys Gym. Prizes were awarded for the most original idea for wearing green. By this time we were less shy than we had been at the previous dance. Our first evening affair was the Junior Frolic, which we gave with the 11A's. Dancing was held in both gyms. There was the East Side band in one and a Rhumba band in the other. In the Girls Gym we had a Maypole and flowers. Bright balloons ornamented the Boys Gym. The photographer took pictures of the fine turnout.

The harvest Social Dance took place in 11A. We can still see before us the beautiful posters and the decorative signs in the hallways. It was a great success, and believe it or not, the girls and boys mingled. Also in 11A, we finally received our long awaited rings. Everyone was eager to participate in class to show off his ring, even though he didn't know the answer.

We recall attending the games and everyone was cheering, "East Side, East Side, What a team!" Our school became the 1950 City Champs in baseball...our basketball team entered the tournament in 1951... and our football and cross-country teams were better than ever.

History

When it came to our Torch, there was a great deal of debating and voting. There were also vital discussions on where our Prom was to be held... Four Towers or East Side? East Side won. We were guided through these vital matters by our capable 12B officers, Harry Hornig, Angelina Capozzi, Mary Hricko, and Carmen Bisogna.

Then came the day  $\dots$  ah  $\dots$  Senior Rec! The girls looked stunning and the boys put on their best bibs and tuckers. There was dancing in the Boys Gym and also a few congo lines.

At last the day every high school student looks forward to . . . The Senior Prom. Our mode of decoration was different from any previous Prom. It looked bewitching, just like a castle in a fairy tale book. The girls looked as though they had stepped out of Vogue and the fellows looked, yes . . . like men. Gone were the shy little 9B boys.

Finally after much voting, the Queen of the Prom and her attendants were named. Lovely and sweet Irene Armstrong with her charming smile was chosen Queen, and her attendants were Bonita Ansaldo, Mary Hricko, Barbara Skoneki, and Margaret Smodis. Irene was crowned by Harold Hornig, our 12B president. She received a beautiful bouquet of long-stemmed roses. Many pictures were taken of this event and also of the other entertainment. Everyone had a grand time, including the faculty.

Our 12A term opened with an exciting campaign resulting in the election of the following officers:

President, Pete Kalibat; Vice-President, Angie Capozzi; Secretary, Marion Micchelli; Treasurer, Carmen Bisogna.

This last term was filled with excitement, fun, and frolic. Senior Recognition, the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance and the Farewell Dance occupied the majority of our time. We laughed, danced, ate, and talked with our very good friends who shared these four years with us.

Ah! We have been dreaming on and off, for we find that we have really been here at graduation as we hear the beautiful refrain of our Alma Mater. We know now that we must stop reminiscing. But as we march out of the auditorium, we all are saying, "These four years were the happiest years of our lives and we know that the fond memories of yester-year at East Side will linger in our hearts forever."

"Smile A While"

There are songs in our hearts. As we sing and hum the refrains they bring to our minds memories of our fellow classmates and humorous thoughts of some of the "happenings" of our high school days.

"Serenade of the Bells"	Late again
"I'll Never Be Free"	Until graduation
"Let's Take an Old Fashioned Walk"	We went to school yesterday
"Don't You Love Me Anymore?"	Teacher's pet
"Enjoy Yourself"	Vacations come but once a year
"I Wanna Do Homework"	Delirious student
	Working for an A
"Don't Cry Joe"	Summer school isn't that bad
"I Haven't Time to be a Millionnaire"	Too much dues
"I Cross My Fingers"	Every time I take a test
"Oh, What a Beautiful Morning"	And it has to be wasted in school
	Wandering minds in history
"If You Only Knew"	All the copying we did
"Accidents will Happen"	Caught on a hook
"Everybody Clap Hands"	Teacher is absent
"Let's Do It Again"	Cutting classes
"Lucky, Lucky, Lucky, Me"	Excused from school
"My Silent Love"	Written up in the Announcer
"The Red We Got Is The Red We Want"	East Side's banner
"Somebody's Crying"	Football Coach
"Don't Say Goodbye"	To your friends at graduation
"Syncopated Clock"	Waiting until 2.30
"Molasses, Molasses"	Cooking room
"My Destiny"	School
"If I Were A Bell"	Would school days be short
"There Will Never Be Another You"	Miss Higgins
"Dream Awhile"	Super Superior Honor Roll
	We still love

The Football Team

Ernest Kuffer

Ernie started his high school and football career in 1948 and helped in achieving an unblemished record for the J. V. team that year. As a sophomore he moved up to the varsity where he showed steady improvement. This year, sporting a well-distributed 200 pounds, he has been one of the most dependable men on our hard---hitting line.

Albert Leonardis

"Chicky", as he is called by his friends, is one of East Side's smallest backs. But size didn't stop Chicky from becoming first string fullback in 1950 when he was both a running and passing back. He returned to the backfield this year to become one of the main cogs in our attack. East Side will long remember this little bundle of dynamite and his graduation leaves a big hole in the backfield.

Emil Cantalupo

Emil's reputation as a quarterback on the 1948 J. V. Team preceded him and he took over the same position on the varsity the following year. To make better use of his solid 190 pounds he was used as a defensive guard during the 1950 season. Passers were on their guard for his rushing tactics, and many plays were broken up because of his efforts. On the offense Emil changes to tackle, a position he fills equally well.

Richard Kauneckis

Dick, off to a late start in football, devoloped himself to become a rugged defensive end. Playing high school football for the first time didn't stop him from playing a big part in every game.

Dick is also an established track man. Chosen cocaptain of the 1951 track team, he went on to receive a medal for the javelin throw in the city meet. His efforts also helped East Side to third place in the county championship.

The Cross Country Team

Anthony Bancala

Tony went out for the Cross Country team and showed steady improvement as the season progressed. Finally, when the important 1950 city meet came, Tony was one of eight runners to represent East Side. He proved himself by coming in 12th out of the best 48 runners in the City and only one runner on the East Side squad finished before him. Tony was rewarded for his efforts when his team-mates elected him cocaptain of the 1951 cross country team.

William Mc Grath

In Bill, co-captain of the 1950 track team, we find one of the fleetest boys afoot. He has the honor of being the fastest half-miler in the city, and has a medal to prove it!

When tryouts for the cross-country team were held, Bill, naturally, was there. After a few meets he was leading the runners around the two and a half-mile course. Bill was awarded a medal when he tied for 4th place in a field of 48 runners.

Peter Kalibat

There goes Pete driving up the center and it's up and in for two points! Yes, that's characteristic of Pete, always driving hard and playing his best. The season of 1950, Pete was first string forward. At first, the team was not too impressive, but then they started to click. Driving hard, they wound up the season by beating five of the better teams in the county.

William Biernacki

Bill is one of the top athletes of the class. He got his chance at varsity basketball in his sophomore year, and it quickly became apparent that he was a natural. His outstanding teamwork and flair for setting up plays made him one of the teams most valuable assets. Bill was also the mainstay of the 1951 baseball team, playing a smooth and effortless first base and powdering the pill at a blistering .433 pace. Naturally, he made all-city honors.

Harold Hornig

Feed this boy a fast pass into the bucket and then relax. If Harry's first try misses, he's always up there for the rebound. His big six-foot-three inch frame and the fact that he is constantly fighting under the boards, is what makes him a scoring threat underneath. This year's team with the help of this tall king of the boards should prove troublesome for the opposition.

ONE profession ... and a MASTER at it

When you choose the profession you're going to follow . . . choose carefully, slowly. When you've decided, select one phase of that profession . . . and then concentrate on it! SPECIALIZE, study and work at your specialty until you know more about it than anyone else in the world.

The creed of specialization and perfection applies universally; to the man who builds better mousetraps, to the surgeon, or the engineer . . . or the photographer.

Academy Yearbook Photographers are SPECIALISTS in that precise sense. We are YEARBOOK Photographers, interested only in creating ever-finer YEARBOOK pictures.
